Let Us Introduce Our Guest Speaker

Rev. Chelsy Bouwman

From her roots in Ponoka, Alberta to the vibrant streets of Belize, Central America. Chelsy's ministry journey has been a joyful whirlwind! A graduate of The King's University (Music) and Wycliffe College (MDiv), she served parishes across Alberta and Ontario before finding her home as the Priest of St. Thomas Anglican Church. While she recently wrapped up her time as the Archdeacon for Rural Ministry, her heart still beats for the unique beauty and storytelling of rural communities.

Chelsy is a firm believer in "incarnational ministry"—which is just a fancy way of saying she loves finding God in the middle of real, messy, everyday life. When she isn't at St. Thomas, her favorite place to be is with her family in Sherwood Park. Married to Jordan for 13 years and mom to their creative, high-energy son, Maks, she balances parish life with the soulful harmonies of the Kappella Kyrie Slavic Chamber Choir. Between the music, you'll likely find her out for a long walk, curled up with a good book, or working on her latest crochet project. Chelsy is all about building the Kingdom through genuine relationships, and a whole lot of heart!
